Sponsors are the backbone of the FOSS4G Conference. With their valuable support, we, the Local Organizing Committee, are able to set up this major event that the entire geospatial community is awaiting.

We reach out to you as we need your help to build FOSS4G 2019, but also because we believe in inclusiveness and we aspire to make FOSS4G 2019 accessible for the widest range of participants, from senior high-end experts, to junior professionals, from freelancers, to professors, from users, to students. The overarching goal is to offer everyone a solid chance to learn, to be inspired, to inspire others and to enjoy the company of fellow geospatial enthusiasts.

By sponsoring FOSS4G 2019, you are extending your contribution to the open source geospatial community, a contribution that is essential in keeping this valuable community active. The FOSS4G Bucharest 2019 Sponsorship Committee worked heavily to shape multiple sponsorship opportunities, yet remaining flexible and opened to ideas. Here are our suggestions.
